

Butler County

Rural Community Construction Finance Loan Program ($500,000) - This project will expand the construction finance program that provides low interest loans to encouraging new housing development in rural communities. This project will bring together communities, local financial institutions and contractors to meet the demand for homes in rural areas, encourage home ownership and create good-paying construction jobs.

Requested by: Homeward, Inc.; 521 North Main Street; Allison, Iowa 50602